

Local News

Equities record N21.7bn turnover in four days

Equities listed on the Nigerian Stock Exchange have generated turnover worth N21.68bn in one week as the market capitalisation climbed above the N13tn mark on Friday to close at N13.020tn. Click here to read more.

SEC names derivatives trading top priority this year

The Securities and Exchange Commission has said the development of an efficient derivatives trading market is one of its top priorities in 2020. Click here to read more.

We saved N700bn through TSA, whistle-blowers, reforms – FG

Through the implementation of various public sector financial management reforms, over N700bn had been saved by the Federal Government. Click here to read more.

Despite electricity tariff hike, FG to fund N545bn shortfall

Electricity distribution companies in the country will record a tariff shortfall of N545bn this year, an analysis of data obtained from the Nigerian Electricity Regulatory Commission has shown. Click here to read more.

Company News

Boeing has uncovered another potential design flaw with the 737 Max

Hundreds of 737 Max jets are sitting, grounded, as Boeing awaits approval from aviation regulators for the troubled plane to return to flight. But now, the company has discovered yet another potential hurdle. Click here to read more.

FTSE chief executive 'earn average salary within three days'

Bosses of Britain's leading firms will be paid more within three working days of 2020 than the average employees' annual wage, according to research. Click here to read more.

International News

Iraqi officials have begun outlining steps for the withdrawal of all foreign forces, PM says

Early this morning in Tehran, Gen. Qasem Soleimani's body was carried to the mosque at Tehran University, where the country's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei led a prayer. Click here to read more.

Smoke in Australia's capital is so bad that the agency responsible for emergency management has shut

The Australian federal government department responsible for managing emergencies shut its Canberra office due to poor air quality on Monday as the nation's capital choked on smoke from deadly bushfires. Click here to read more.

Disclaimer:

The views expressed in this report are provided for information purposes only and are not to be considered as an offer or solicitation of an offer to buy or sell any financial instrument. The material herein is obtained from a variety of sources and we make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness. This material has been issued by Qualinvest Capital Limited, which is regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Further information on any security mentioned herein may be obtained by emailing: