

Local News

Petrol landing cost rises to N180, oil crosses \$60

The landing cost of Premium Motor Spirit (petrol) imported into the country has risen by 13.34 per cent in one month to about N180 per litre on the back of the increase in global oil prices. Click here to read more.

FG planning to replace BVN with NIN – Minister

The Minister of Communications and Digital Economy, Dr Isa Pantami, has said the Federal Government plans to replace Bank Verification Numbers with the National Identity Numbers. Click here to read more.

Customs intercept N788.18m smuggled rice, PMS from Seme border

The Nigeria Customs Service, Seme Command made 1,294 seizures with a duty paid value of N788.19m in the year 2020, the agency said on Monday. Click here to read more.

Stock market extends losing streak, sheds N80bn

The nation's stock market fell further on Monday, extending its losing streak to six consecutive trading sessions as profit-taking persisted. Click here to read more.

Company News

Chinese regulators throw spanner in Tesla's works

Five Chinese regulators have summoned Tesla over quality and safety issues as it ramps up production of its latest model in its Shanghai factory. Click here to read more.

Robinhood: US family sue trading app over son's suicide

The parents of a man who killed himself last year have filed a lawsuit against trading app Robinhood over his death. Click here to read more.

International News

Senate leaders reach agreement on impeachment trial rules

The second impeachment trial of former President Donald Trump begins this week as Senate leaders reached an agreement Monday, giving the impeachment managers and Trump's lawyers up to 16 hours each to present their cases and creating the option for a debate and vote to call witnesses -- if the House impeachment managers seek it. Click here to read more.

North Korean hackers stole more than \$300 million to pay for nuclear weapons, says confidential UN report

North Korea's army of hackers stole hundreds of millions of dollars throughout much of 2020 to fund the country's nuclear and ballistic missile programs in violation of international law, according to a confidential United Nations report. Click here to read more.

Disclaimer:

The views expressed in this report are provided for information purposes only and are not to be considered as an offer or solicitation of an offer to buy or sell any financial instrument. The material herein is obtained from a variety of sources and we make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness. This material has been issued by Qualinvest Capital Limited, which is regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Further information on any security mentioned herein may be obtained by emailing: